

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

"Certificate of Establishment"

On this, the 300th anniversary of the founding of the Commonwealth and the formation of its system of self-government, the House of Representatives recognizes Pennsylvania's rich and enduring heritage of Municipal and County Governments.

Monaghan

established on 1745 and its citizenry, those of today and of generations past, is hereby recognized by the House of Representatives for its service in advancing the common good of Pennsylvania.

This certificate is presented with a wish for continuing vitality through all future time, and our pledge of continuing good will and assistance in the cause of self-government.
